ORDER

Plaintiff seeks to join as parties various named members of the Board of Police Commissioners, as well as their Secretary-Attorney (Doc. 102). This motion tacitly concedes plaintiff's error in naming the Board as such, which is the target of one point in a motion to dismiss (Doc. 87). The Board will be dismissed in due course, but consideration is here given to joining the members. This case is complicated enough without burdening it with unnecessary parties. Plaintiff suggests no plausible basis for alleging Board policy or a Board deficiency of legal significance that would create liability outside the nine individual Police Department actors already in the case. It will be time enough, once good cause appears, to join members of the Board, and conceivably their attorney.¹

The motion to join parties (Doc. 102) is DENIED, without prejudice to renewal if good cause appears. The clerk of the court is directed to mail a copy of this order by regular mail and
